Shallow (Lady Gaga)

Tell me something, God
 Are you happy with this enslaved world?
 Or do you need more?
 Is there chumetz that you're searching for?
 Salt-watering
 In all the good times I find myself
 Longing, for Bread
 And in the bad times I fear myself....

Tell me somethin' God
 Aren't you tired tryna lose celluloid?
 Or do you need more?
 Ain't it hard keepin' Elijah at the door?
 Salt-watering
 In all the good times I find myself
 Longing for Bread
 And in the bad times I fear myself
 I'm off the deep end Watch as I recline in I'll never eat marror ground
 Crash on the sofa
 Where they can't irk us
 We're far from the seder now
 In the seder
 In the seder
 In the seder
 We're far from the seder now
 Tell me somethin' God
 Tell me somethin' God
 Yeah, we're far from the seder
 Yeah, we're far from the seder now
 Yeah, we're far from the seder now
 We're far from the seder now

Broken (LovelyTheBand)

I like that your Matza's broken like me
 Maybe that makes me a slave
 I like that your Matza's holy like me
 I could be holy with you

I met you late night, at a seder
 Some Lubovitch, Brooklyn loft
 By the bathroom, you said let's talk
 But my confidence is wearing off

These are my people
 These are my friends

She grabbed my face and that's when she said:

I like that you're matza's Broken like me
 Maybe that makes me a slave
 I like that you're holy like me
 I could be holy with you

There's something tragic, but almost pure
 Think I could love you, but I'm not sure
 There's something wholesome, there's something sweet Tucked in your eyes that I'd love to meet

These are my people
 These are my friends
 She grabbed my face and that's when she said
 I like that you're matza's
 Broken like me
 Maybe that makes me a fool
 I like that you're holy
 like me
 I could be Holy with you

To "The Fresh Prince of Bel Air" Theme Song

Now this is the story all about how
 My life in Egypt got flipped upside down And I'd like to take a minute just sit back and lean
 I'll tell you how I became the prince of a town called Mizrayim

In West Alexandria born and raised
 In a basket is where I spent most of my days
 Chilling out, maxing, relaxing all cool
 And all floating in da Nile like swimming in a pool
 When a couple of Pharaoh's guys said we're up in no good
 Started making trouble in my neighborhood
 There was one harsh decree and the Jews got scared
 And said you're moving down to Goshen with Yisro & Tzipporah there

I whistled at this burning bush and when I came near the bush said Shalom, had I had too much beer?
 If anything I could say that this miracle was rare
 But I thought can't forget it, Yo Pharaoh's been unfair

I pulled up to a palace about seven or eight
 And I yelled to Pharaoh, yo homes smell you later
 Looked at my kingdom I was finally there To Let My People Go; Taking da Jews to freedom from despair

Use Somebody by Kings of Leon

Moses been roaming around, he was looking down at all his peeps Slave faces, wishing free places, they can't reach
 You know that I could use some parsley
 You know that I could use some parsley

Some karpas like you and all you need is saltwater and green Countless veggies wont keep you up, you need caffeine

You know that I could use more parsley.
You know that I could use more parseley
Some karpas for you!

Off in seder night while you live it up, don't fall asleep
 Waging wars against Paroah, but Im starving and hungry
 I hope it's gonna make you notice (im starving)
 I hope it's gonna make you notice (this is too long)

Someone needs meat, someone needs meat,
 Shulchan Aruch like me, somebody

I'm ready now, I'm ready now (to eat)
 I'm ready now, I'm ready now (to lean)
 I'm ready now, I'm ready now (to fress)
 I'm ready now (to sleep)

Some karpas will do, some parsley. Some karpas will do, some parsley Some karpas will do, some parsley

I've been roaming around, looking down at the sederplate and karpas is all I see
 You know that I could use some parsley that I could use some parsley

MORE SONGS

To tune of "Take me out to the Ballgame"

Take me out to the Seder
Take me out to the crowd
Feed me some matzah and charoses
I'm a King now, to Egypt we're never going back Cause it's not for Moshe Rabbenu
Had to break the luchas what a shame!
For it's one, two, ...four cups of wine
At the ole seder plate!

1 DOWN, 3 TO GO.

Brady Bunch Theme song

Here's the story of our great-grand Bubby and Zeide
Who were enslaved for about 210 years.
All of them were stuck in Egypt, with their Jewish brothers, it was awfully hard work and bitter tears.

Here's their story,
Lets call it a "Seder"
Which we tell about how they finally broke free!
God sent Moshe to deal with Pharaoh, and also to split the red sea.

Till that one day when God himself came to our rescue
And they knew it was much more than a hunch,
That this group of slaves would somehow form a nation.
That's the way we all became the Jewish Bunch.

The Jewish Bunch,

That's the way we all became the Jewish Bunch.
The Jewish Bunch.

To the Tune of Gilligan's Island

Just sit right back and you'll hear a tale,
A tale of a fateful trip,
That started when we were slaves, on our exodus from Egypt

Moses was a mighty holy man,
Aaron brave and sure.
The Jewish Nation escaped that night,
For a three day tour, a three day tour.

The Egyptians started getting rough
The Red Sea had no bridge to cross
If not for the courage of the fearless Jew,
Our nation would be lost, our nation would be lost.

God split the sea and we came to shore to start a new lifestyle
With Miriam, and Aaron too,
Under G-d's care we did survive
Moses' lead,
The Torah and our Israel land
Here on Passover Night!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Lady in Red

I've never seen Nile looking so bloody as it did tonight
I've never seen the Nile so bright (O positive)
I've never seen so many men ask you if you had a drink
They're looking for a working sink, water's all a bit pink
And I have never seen that water so flaming
Or the stench that's in the air that waters your eyes
I have been blind

The NILE in red is plaguing Egypt, creek to creek
There's no water here, it's just all bloody
It's why I want to freak
But I hardly know this Nile by my side
I'll never forget the way you look tonight

I've never seen you looking so Hemo as you did tonight
I've never seen you shine so bright, wish it was raining
I've never seen so many people want to be there by your side
And when you turned to red and fire, it took my breath away
And I have never had such a feeling
Such a feeling of complete and utter thirst, as I do tonight

The NILE in red is plaguing Egypt, creek to creek
There's no water here, it's just so bloody
It's why I want to freak
But I hardly know this Nile by my side
I'll never forget the way you look tonight
I never will forget the way you look tonight
The Nile in red, the Nile in red
The Nile in red, my lady in red

"I'm telling you Pharaoh, my staff is an act from God!"

Happy Passover: | bangtrot.com

To the tune of Hotel California

On an Egyptian desert highway
Cool wind in our hair
Warm smell of mazohballs
Rising up through the air.
Up ahead in the distance
There's no food in sight
My head grew heavy, and my sight grew dim
Why is this different then all other nights?

There Elijah stood in the doorway
I heard his dayanu song
And I was thinking to myself
This could be Heaven or Maagid prolonged!?

Then I asked the 4 questions
The Haggadah taught me the way
There were voices for each 4 sons
I thought I heard them say:

Chorus

Welcome to our Passover Seder
Such a lovely place

Such a lovely place (background)
There's no need to race!

Plenty of room at our Passover Table
It's that time of year

It's that time of year (background)

TORAH INSIGHTS

Topic	Haggadah Question	Insight / Answers
Leaving Egypt	"Egypt" is a just a location, wouldn't it be better to focus on the actual problem like "Leaving Pharoah" or "Leaving Slavery"? Not Where	Passover is intended to be a personal liberation. Slavery and Pharoah were specific things that our forefathers escaped. The Haggadah keeps it vague to allow you to fill in your own specific struggle that you need to break free from in order for you to fully empathize. Take a second to focus on what's holding you back and then you can fully relate (Rabbi Tzvi Blanchard)
More Speak More Praiseworthy	There are 3 places the Talmud says "the more you speak, the more praiseworthy", Name them and their connection	1. Leaving Egypt at the Seder 2. Eulogy for a Parent 3. Defense for Someone accused of a Capital Crime The connection: A. All are situations where someone can no longer speak on their own behalf. B. They all are situations where your words can literally bring these things that are dead back to life (Mark Gerson)
Bnei Brak Up all Night Torah Story	Why does the Hagadah start to tell us a story about a bunch of rabbis staying up all night to discuss the Exodus. Why not just tell us: Stay up late and discussed?	The writers of the Haggadah needed a framework in which to "Teach". Their method: Stories and questions. Stories have been used as a source for learning throughout history for two reasons: 1. You remember and 2. you relate to them much better. When you read or watch stories, it often produces mental imagery, evokes emotions and focuses attention, all of which are mechanisms that can increase learning and long-term retention. (Rabbi Avrom Marmorstein)
The 4 Sons	The talmud Yerushalmi has only 3 sons mentioned. The Wicked son isn't mentioned? Why keep him?	Speak to your "All of you Children when they ask" - the rabbis knew all children means all types - that certainly includes someone not so interested or even worse: Bitter Tweens. They kept it to make a point: focus on reaching all kids (Rabbi Avrom Marmorstein)
In Every Generation	There are two places in the Hagadah that use the term "In Every Generation". What are they? What's their connection?	In Every Generation: A person is obligated to regard himself as though he actually left Egypt. In Every Generation: People will rise up to destroy us. The Connection: The identical term here serves as a comfort that although although these terrible things will continue to happen, so will the idea that we can always persevere. (R' Shaul Robinson)
The Ten Plagues	Is there any logic to the randomness of the 10 plagues?	The famous explanation is that the plagues mimic true warfare strat: by Sea (1-3) by Ground (4-6) by Sky (7 -9) and By God(10). The Maharal says that each of the 10 plague was the reversal of the 10 times God says "Let there Be..." at creation. For example: plague of Darkness reversed "Let there be light", This gives new meaning to the arbitrary nature of each plague, and that in fact God was truly formulaic in the way in which he inflicted retribution upon the Egyptians (R Moshe Grussgott)
Dtash Adash Bachab	What is the point of this Acronym? To just remember the 10 plagues?	Rabbi Yehuda wasn't only accustomed to giving Acronyms but also to teach a lesson. Dtazch means Happiness, Adash means Beans, BAchab means Brother. Alluding to the monumental Red Lentil Soup Birthright deal that Jacob bought from his brother Esav. Despite hundreds of years of slavery, after the plagues, it was suddenly all worth it. (Rabbi Alan Schwartz)
Dayaynu	There are 15 stanzas in this song. The number 15 shows up a number of times in the Hagadah. Can you name where?	There are 15 steps to the Seder. There are 15 stanzas to Dayaynu. 15 actually has a deeper significance of transition. There are 15 generations between Abraham and Solomon. From a people starting to a people establishing a king and a temple. 15 always signifies transition. The seder is intended to do just that for you personally. We say Dayaynu for all 15 steps no matter how illogical (getting to 9 Mt. Sinai and not receiving the torah, Dayaynu?) as every step is one holistic transition (Rabbi Alan Schwartz) Bangitout.com
